DECEMBER 2023 LIVE CATTLE	183.60
FEBRUARY 2024 LIVE CATTLE	187.62
APRIL 2024 LIVE CATTLE	190.37
JUNE 2024 LIVE CATTLE	184.17

=====

Live Cattle trade volume was moderate Thursday. Spec traders were bear spreading Live Cattle and also buying cattle and selling hogs.

Choice boxed beef continues to move down.

August Live Cattle on Thursday settled at $178.50. The 5 day negotiated steer price is $184.78. Like June 2023, the wide difference between cash and futures will encourage feedlots to sell cash as soon as a packer will take them. However, high priced replacements and cattle set back in the Southwest because of the past two months high temperatures could make a big difference how feedlots move cattle. Feed prices breaking also will have feedlots wanting to add weight.

Monday, August 7, 2023 is first notice day.

=====

It looks like another light slaughter this week. Keeping slaughter down to a minimum is how packers are able to give some support to the boxed beef market. Packers will kill enough for contracted beef and enough to fill daily orders.

EXPORTS

For week ending July 27, 2023 beef net sale exports were 12,400 MT. The largest buyer was South Korea taking just 3,900 MT followed by Japan with 3,400 MT and Canada at 2,500 MT. China took 900 MT. It is disappointing to see exports drop as much as they did.

Week Ending July 20 , 2023 21,400 MT

Week Ending July 13 , 2023 20,900 MT

Week Ending July 6 , 2023 9900 MT

Week Ending June 29 , 2023 17,000 MT

=====

Hog slaughter last Friday was up 3.6% year to date and as of Thursday it is up from a week ago 40,000 hogs and up 73,000 hogs compared to the same week period a year ago. Lean Hog trade volume was moderately active Thursday . It is too early to say if the downturn on Thursday was a reversal. Spec traders were bear spreading from October 2023 on out, but with moderate volume it could be simply profit taking. Traders were also buying Live Cattle and selling Lean Hogs Thursday.

Exports for the year remain strong but for week ending July 27th they were down especially seeing Mexico such a light buyer and Japan taking such a small amount. Exports have been very supportive for U.S. pork.

August Lean Hogs settled Thursday at $101.00 and the current CME Lean Hog Index is $105.90.

The daily pork carcass rebounded Thursday and was up $4.00 recovering the loss Wednesday of $3.86. There was little change on the 5 day average gaining 18 cents. Loins were down on the daily by 4.31 while hams were up 3.03. The daily fluctuation as it has been over the past several were bellies that were up 22.31 after losing 10.92 on Wednesday.

=====

Pork exports to Mexico are up in 2023. Through May 2023, the latest official data, U.S. pork plus pork variety meat total exports were up 14% with Mexico up 13%, the largest buyer of U.S. pork. But look for Mexico to slip in purchases. The Mexican Peso is up and is now called the "super peso." But at the same time inflation is up big. Consumers have less money to spend on food.
