Traders rolling and spreading made up most of Tuesday's trade. Trade volume was moderate for December, a little more active for February and light on out from April. Cattle moved up to the 10 day moving average and fell off the highs to close slightly below the 5 day moving average. Last Friday, Live Cattle futures were slightly oversold. After Monday's and Tuesday's trade that is no longer the case.

Choice boxed beef started out Tuesday on morning sales down $1.86. Rib and Loin primals have been the major support of the beef market and both dropped Tuesday. Retailers have supplies met for consumers eating beef on Thanksgiving. Going forward, ribs and loin primals need to maintain strength into the second and third weeks of December.

Markets are bear spread and bear spreading is not bullish.

Exports aren't helping beef prices. They are dismal and there isn't a good outlook for improvement. Killing fewer cattle with high Choice beef prices is limiting exports.

At least crude prices and heating oil prices are down. Packers working with negative margins and feedlots seeing cattle prices drop better hope that prices don't rally and unemployment remains low.

Feeder Cattle volume was light Tuesday. Traders Tuesday, like Live Cattle, pushed prices up to the 200 day moving average but sold the highs to finish below the 5 day moving average. It might appear as profit taking before the COF Report on Friday but actually is more like adding to shorts on the bounce. Like Live Cattle, feeders are bear spread..

EXPORTS

With low water levels at the Panama Canal that is expected to last another 10 months, China, Japan, and South Korea might need to buy more meat and grain from the US. Last week China increased buying pork from the US but as it has happened in the past, China has increased one week only to be out for weeks. With most fresh pork and beef air freighted, it is also highly likely countries might increase air shipments. It is something to watch

For the week ending November 2, 2023 net export sales were 49,000 MT. China was the largest buyer taking 13,100 MT, followed by Mexico with 11,300 MT. Japan bought 9300 MT and South Korea at 6800 MT. These are strong exports. Pork exports are the major support for the pork market.

WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 26, 2023 NET EXPORT SALES WERE 31,100 MT.
