USDA LIVESTOCK REPORTS FOR JANUARY 2022

CATTLE ON FEED REPORT – JANUARY 21, 2022 - 2:00PM CENTRAL TIME COLD STORAGE REPORT - JANUARY 24, 2022 - 2:00PM CENTRAL TIME

Beef net sales were 9,700MT. Sales of this size do not help support the beef market. Biggest buyer was Japan taking 2,600MT. China bought 1,100MT China has coolers filled and don't expect to see buying from them like 2021 and they are back to buying beef from Brazil.

ADMIS.com | 312.242.7000 | Chicago | New York | London | Hong Kong | Singapore | Taipei | Shanghai

Kansas and Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico opened up the gates on Tuesday and started selling cattle from $134.00 to $137.00 lowa, Minnesota and Nebraska followed on Wednesday selling for $137.00 - $138.00 with 222 head selling for $139.00. Thursday there was some scattered very light buying but packers were finished by Wednesday

Packers claim COVID is lowering workers available for work but weights aren't showing cattle are being held back. Packers keeping kill down to support beef market. Consumers are fighting high cost beef with increasing buying of lower grade beef and cheaper meat like ground beef.

The past two COF reports showed the lightest placements were heavier feeders and biggest number of placements should come late spring. Also, from September through December feeding conditions have pushed cattle ahead. Weather has been almost ideal for feeding cattle. Feed conversions the last quarter of 2021 were some of the best in years.

January 11, 2022 dressed steer and heifer weights were 899.8 pounds compared to previous week at 899.5 pounds up .3 pounds. Three tenths of a pound is not a big gain in weight. With draw down on slaughter, should expect if cattle are being backed up there would be, a much larger increase than 3/10ths of a pound.

The grading percent also was up at 83.5% percent compared to a week ago at 82.1% percent. https://www.ams.usda.gov/mreports/ams 2700.pdf

No recent price comparison due to the last couple weeks of holiday-shortened receipts, however there was a higher undertone noted from the last fully reported markets. Demand was reported as good to very good depending on how long ago the latest local auction had occurred while cattle feeders and order buyers were geared up and ready to buy cattle. As tradition goes, the first full week of the New Year brought a lot of cattle to town. The supply of feeders was heavy with many load lots and big strings of reputation cattle consigned throughout the country. Picking out highlights was difficult as there was a multitude of impressive sales nationwide. On Wednesday at Burwell (NE) Livestock Market, a part load of 808 lb steers sold at 170.00, while on Tuesday at Kingsville (MO) Livestock Auction, three loads of 840 lb steers sold at 166.10. Grazing cattle are still in demand as well.

CME PORK INDEX TO CME LEAN HOG INDEX plus 10.59

THE SPREAD BETWEEN THE CME PORK INDEX AND FEBRUARY 2022 LEAN HOGS IS $

Thursday the pork carcass price on daily sales was up 10.05 and the higher pork prices brought Lean Hog futures off the lows of earlier in the morning. With a three day weekend coming up, concern hogs are backing up, and with April, the most actively traded contract, down from Monday's over $3.50, traders took profits.

Export net sales were just 19,800 MT with Mexico the biggest buyer with 10,100MT followed by Japan with just 3,100 MT Last month China wasn't kidding when they said there was a glut of pork. They took 1,400MT and likely it was variety meats and offal.

Exports need to be at least 25,000MT/week.

Prop 12 in California

So far, the pork supply in California hasn't changed. Prices aren't shooting up and unless pork prices change across the rest of the US over the next 6 months, pork prices in California will go along with other states. Prop 12 allows hogs born in 2021 to sell the pork in 2022. Also, there are two US packers that are already complying with requirements of Prop 12. It will be 6 months from January 1st when and if pork supplies change and prices go up.
